Reed School Bond Vote Set: $525,000

Reed Union School District trustees last night took a long, hard look at the district's needs and came up with a $525,000 local bond issue for the next three years.

A special election was set for Sept. 20. The district will not ask for state aid authorization because $330,000 already authorized is still on hand.

The decision was unanimous, after a two-hour argument which saw trustee Chairman Richard J. MacLaurin and Trustee Alfred J. Azevedo lined up against Vice Chairman Ahleen Tresnon and Trustee David D. Ring.

Trustee Erwin C. Farley finally cast the third vote for the three-year plan.

Mrs. Tresnon and Ring proposed that the school bond issue be for $918,000, to cover projected needs for five years. MacLaurin and Azevedo argued that "this is a political unreality... The temper of the people in regard to taxes would defeat the election."

Ring and Tresnon argued: "When we have a five-year plan of building schools in the district, it does not make sense to ask for a half now and go to the voters again in two and one-half years to ask for the rest."

"We do not want to jeopardize the success of this bond issue by asking for a million and one-half dollars in local bonds and state aid authorization at this time," MacLaurin said.

"In 1956, our last bond issue, we sold the voters on a

Early Fairfax Turnout Light

Voting was extremely light up to noon today in the Fairfax School District tax election.

Voters are being asked whether the district tax rate should be increased from the present $1.25 to $2 per $100 of assessed valuation.

A similar proposal was defeated last October. Polls will be open until 7 p.m. at the three district schools—Manor, Deer Park and Central.

A spokesman for George A. Fuller Co. of New York, contractor for the Capehart project, said about 300 of the company's employees refused to cross the picket lines. Only the landscapers were at work on the project.

The Capehart housing is scheduled to be completed in July.

Tests Indicate Gate Span Can Carry Transit

Preliminary Studies Favorable, But More Scrutiny Due

By CHAPIN A. DAY
Preliminary tests indicate carrying rapid transit across the Golden Gate Bridge is feasible, directors of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District were told yesterday.

In his first report David B. Steinman, New York engineer who is conducting a $50,000 study of transit on the gate span, told the transit district's engineering committee that preliminary findings show:

CAN TAKE LOADS

1. The cables can carry all added loads needed for rapid transit with four trains anywhere on the bridge at one time. He said this would be acceptable because of the high strength of the wire used in the cables.

2. The suspender cables, which hang down from the main cables to hold up the bridge's roadway, can carry all added weight needed and still take up less than one-third of the minimum ultimate load for which the suspenders were tested.

3. Stiffening of truss chords would be needed only in certain local areas.

YET TO BE STUDIED

Need for stiffening the truss diagonals, the strength of the main towers and foundations have yet to be studied, Steinman pointed out. Also, the deflection and movement at the main expansion joints of the bridge need study, he said.

The tests were made with the assumption that the rapid transit system would be placed underneath the present roadway of the bridge. They also assumed that the present heavy railing across the bridge would be replaced with a lightweight railing and that sidewalk would be reduced to about half their width to reduce the weight of concrete.

WIND TUNNEL TESTS
Steinman warned, however, it may be necessary to conduct wind tunnel tests before he can arrive at a final decision as to whether the bridge can safely carry a rapid transit system.

Possibilities of such tests worried some of the directors. They felt this might delay decision on use of the bridge to connect Marin into the five-county transit system. The directors hope to put a construction bond issue on the November ballot and have set May 1 as the deadline for completing engineering studies as a prelude to such a vote.

SALEM, Ore. (UPI) — A 76-year-old Oregon Supreme Court justice and a life-long Democrat, Hall Stoner Lusk, today was appointed to the U.S. Senate by Republican Gov. Mark Hatfield to fill out the unexpired term of the late Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D-Ore.).

The selection came as a surprise.

Even in the final hours before the announcement, bulk of the speculation was that Mrs. Maurine Neuberger, the senator's widow, would be chosen despite a statement by Hatfield last Thursday that the appointee would not be among those seeking election to the end of the runway.

LIVES IN FAIRFAX

The spokesman said there may also have been a shutdown on minor projects at the base, but it could not be determined until Air Force inspectors made their checks.

McNair Painting Co. could not be reached for comment on the dispute. The head of the company now lives in Fairfax, according to Scott.

A spokesman for George A. Fuller Co. of New York, contractor for the Capehart project, said about 300 of the company's employees refused to cross the picket lines. Only the landscapers were at work on the project.

THE BEGINNING

DOWNTONVILLE (UPI) — The Larry Lord Motherwell murder case went to the jury at 10:30 a.m. today.

The judge told the nine women and three men they could consider only two verdicts—first degree murder or acquittal—for the 42-year-old construction worker accused of killing Mrs. Pearl Putney, 72-year-old Washington, D.C., widow for her money while on her "last fling" cross-country motor tour.

GETTING READY FOR OPENING
—Two big cranes lift last letter into place in large sign on facade of Montgomery Ward and Co. store in Corte Madera Center. The store, more than twice the size of Wards' San Rafael outlet, which it replaces, will open Thursday morning. Employees were permitted to make purchases at an employees' night special opening last night.

OPENING THURSDAY

Help For New Ward Store Ends Schooling

Yesterday was commencement day for the last of six classes to complete a 24-hour training program for employees of Montgomery Ward and Co.'s new store in Corte Madera Center, which will open Thursday.

The training sessions, which started Feb. 15, were held in a building at 221 Corte Madera avenue, Corte Madera. They covered the relation of each department to all levels of the company's organization, as well as sales presentation, customer relations, cash register operation and procedures of Ward's new audit system.

All types of transactions were practiced in the store yesterday by graduates of the training school. William Barrer, Ward's regional training manager, gave them a variety of special problems during the half-day session.

Papers were graded to determine whether employees were full prepared for Thursday's grand opening. Extra training was given where required.

Kenneth Moore, training manager for the new store, said the sessions marked the beginning of a continuous program to be coordinated by the company's central training department in Chicago and conducted by the store's personnel manager at semi-monthly meetings.

Larry Salsman assisted Moore with the initial training classes.

Fairfax Readies Resolution On Chief Of Police Exam

At an adjourned meeting next Monday at 7 p.m., the Fairfax City Council will hear a resolution drafted by City Attorney Wallace M. Myers calling for an examination for the chief of police.

It has not been decided whether the examination will be limited to officers or open to patrolmen as well, said City Clerk Alice Leonesio today.

Clifton C. Cordes, the only officer on the Fairfax force, has been acting as chief since the sudden death of Andy J. Peri last December. His temporary tenure of office expires April 15.

Police Commissioner William L. Hughes stressed that the pending examination should include points for experience.

On March 29 at 7 p.m. a test will be given by the Fairfax Police Department to create an

Terra Linda Vote To Fill Three Board Positions

One thing is for sure. There are three vacancies to be filled on the board of directors of the Terra Linda Community Services District.

Terms expiring are those of

John P. Namele, William Munson and Elmer Johnson.

That is the way it was first announced.

Then Board Chairman Joseph R. Gunn III said that was wrong. He said the term of Murray Peterson, not Johnson, was expiring.

But today, district general manager Jack Brandon looked in his books and said Peterson's term is not expiring, it's Johnson's that is coming to an end.

And Brandon added that any one wishing to take out nomination papers must do so by April 1. He will pass them out evenings at his home, 649 Bamboo terrace.

Red Cross Show Starts Tomorrow

"Your Red Cross in Marin," a monthly interview program, will make its bow tomorrow at 11 a.m. on radio station KTIM when Kitty Oppenheimer introduces on her "Open House" program Mrs. Frank E. Duhme Jr., chapter president of the American Red Cross in Marin.

Since March is Red Cross Month, Mrs. Duhme will highlight the story of the local chapter, which will be documented monthly as key people in such services as Gray Ladies, water safety, first aid and motor corps visit with Mrs. Oppenheimer.

Sausalito Plants Tree In Plaza

The City of Sausalito planted a cedar tree in Vina del Mar Plaza Sunday afternoon in the presence of a crowd of spectators.

The tree, donated by Fred D. Turner, is part of the many exchanges planned by Sausalito and her sister city, Vina del Mar, Chile. A similar cedar is to be sent to that city.

The tree was planted near the twin elephants which face Bridgeway. The first shovel of dirt was turned by Mayor Howard Sievers with a gold-painted shovel.

Hearing Slated On Trampoline Center Project

A public hearing on luggage manufacturer H. M. Koch's plan for a Corte Madera trampoline center was set by the town planning commission last night for 8 p.m. April 11 in Corte Madera Town Hall.

Earlier, the town board of design gave its blessing to the proposed layout of the center and approved a turquoise and brown color scheme for the unusual ticket pavilion designed by Gordon A. Phillips, San Rafael architect.

UNFORESEEN

The planning commission decided the trampoline center falls under the conditional use category of the town zoning ordinance, since it is a use not foreseen in the measure.

The ordinance requires all but certain specified uses in a regional shopping center district to be completely enclosed. As proposed, the trampoline center would be fenced but not covered by a roof.

Koch proposes to locate the center, containing about 20 trampolines for public jumping at a nominal fee, at 704 Tamalpais Drive, adjacent to Corte Madera Center.

OTHER ACTIONS

In other matters, the town planners:

1. Recommended that the zoning ordinance be amended to change the makeup of the town board of adjustments to two planning commissioners and one at-large member. The board now is composed of three planning commissioners.

2. Recommended that a small unnamed street by the old Circle Drive-In be named Conow street after Mrs. Charlotte Conow, long-time worker in Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission activities. The planners also recommended that Willow Lane, near the Northwestern Pacific Railroad tunnel, be changed to Tunnel Lane to avoid confusion with Willow Avenue.

Novato Board Accepts Bid For Sewers

The Novato Sanitary District board last night accepted the $11,642.70 low bid of S. H. Ceravantes and Son of San Rafael for construction of the west base intercepting sewers at Hamilton Air Force Base.

The project will tie in the sewers that serve the west base housing and industrial areas to the Novato district.

Seven other bids were received on the project, ranging as high as $17,563. Engineers had estimated it would cost $14,442.

The board and representatives of the proposed Novato hospital agreed that the hospital will pay one-quarter of the cost of building about 1,400 feet of connecting lines from the hospital to the district's main transmission line on Center road. The line will cost about $12,000, district manager A. H. Tresch said.

The new lines also will correct deficiencies existing for another special preview tonight, this one for Marin County civic and business leaders.

Final inspection of the Corte Madera Center store was to be made this afternoon by E. E. Peterson, Ward's western regional general manager.

Batty said the success of last night's family event "gave evidence that our employees are determined to make Wards' the friendliest store in Marin County."

Police Commissioner William L. Hughes and councilman Rolfe M. Ockenden argued the height standard of the proposed patrolman.

Ockenden said he felt a height minimum of five foot eight inches should be maintained for applicants because . . . "They should at least be as tall as the big kids . . ."

But Hughes argued that it was not the height that made the difference but the strength of the man.

The council compromised and decided to maintain the established code which no member could quote or quite remember.

Larkspur Planners To Try Again On Rezone Petition

The Larkspur Planning Commission will make a third attempt tonight to act on a petition by Schultz Building Co. for rezoning of about 37 acres on Bon Air Hill in Greenbrae.

Absence of Commissioners

Vaughn Marker and John Vandall from the last two meetings has prevented action, since a four-fifths favorable vote is required for rezoning. The Schultz firm is seeking multiple residential zoning of the property, now zoned one-family residential.

The commission, to convene at 8 o'clock in Larkspur City

Hall, will consider plans submitted by Eugene Bissatini for a six-unit apartment house at

Hillcrest and Bayo Vista avenues.

The agenda also includes what has come to be known as

"the Vincilione problem."

It concerns the storage of heavy equipment by contractor P. H.

Vincilione on Magnolia avenue property south of Bon Air road.

Residents of nearby Hillview

Gardens have asked cessation of the non-conforming industrial use. The property is zoned for business.

Drug Crackdown Slated By Brown

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A new program, including a special crime commission, was aimed by Gov. Edmund G. Brown today against major profiteers, peddlers and addicts in "this ugly business" of illicit narcotics traffic.

It was the governor's answer to heavy demands to call a special session on narcotics.

Rejecting the requests, Brown said yesterday there wasn't time during the current 30-day legislative session to consider "very difficult and complex questions" raised by every proposal.

His firm "no" came in the

Backers Drive For Rights Plan In House

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Civil rights advocates drove today for House approval of a voting referee plan to resolve the long wrangle over legislation against racial discrimination at the polls.

The major test vote was expected late today, paving the way for a final House vote on the bill about Thursday.

The Senate continued battling over various provisions of its own civil rights legislation despite a general expectation it eventually will accept whatever the House passes.

The House in swift parliamentary moves yesterday discarded two administration civil rights proposals that might have led to prolonged debate. Both were ruled out of order on grounds they were not closely enough related to the main bill.

They would have provided for:

A commission to safeguard Negro and other minority employment rights on government contracts.

Financial aid to school districts changing from segregated school systems.

Million Dollars Approved For Squaw Valley

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The Assembly Ways and Means Committee has approved the second million-dollar allocation for Squaw Valley since the current session of the Legislature began.

The approval yesterday came as Asst. Finance Director Robert Harkness told the legislators that revenues from the VIII Winter Olympic Games fell more than one-third under the three million dollars predicted by Olympic organizing officials.

The first one million dollars approved by the Legislature was used to help pay off the deficit for the winter games. The new million dollars would go for acquisition and improvement of a parking lot, operating the park and other smaller costs during 1960-61.

Beaches and Parks Director Charles DeTurk predicted Squaw Valley will require an additional two and one-half million dollars in the next five years to acquire and improve property for the state park. DeTurk also predicted the park would operate at an annual loss of about $140,000, making Squaw Valley 75 to 80 per cent self-supporting. This would be the best in the park system except Hearst Castle at San Simeon, he added.

He will give the strongest backing to every state agency in the current effort "to impress upon the federal government, especially the Department of State," the seriousness of the steady stream of narcotics across the Mexican border.

LOGAN, W. Va. (UPI) — Rescue workers searching for 18 trapped coal miners early today entered a second area where they might have taken refuge but found no one.

Three suspects were seized shortly after the shooting last night, but witnesses were unable to identify them as the three men who killed John McAuliffe, 36, and Ben Spizzirri, 42, the inspectors.

McAuliffe and Spizzirri were shot to death as they arrested the gang for stealing five bags of government mail from a nearby freight house.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower sent to Congress yesterday a proposed 10-year program designed to improve the nation's rail, air, highway and water transportation systems.

Finch Jury Probed

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Finch case jury room may have been as full as sound and fury as the courtroom, according to reports reaching Dist. Atty. William B. McKesson.

McKesson, prompted by tales told by two jurors, wants to find out just what happened behind the locked door as the jury argued itself into a bitter deadlock.

The object, the study said, is to help divert commuters from highways to public transportation to relieve rush-hour traffic jams and to help finance better urban transportation.

Koreans Vote Today

SEOUL, South Korea (UPI) — Ten million Koreans voted for president and vice president today in an election marred by tension, violence and charges by Democrats of widespread fraud.

The 84-year-old incumbent,

Syngman Rhee, unopposed, needed the votes of one-third — 3,732,164 — of the 11,196,490 registered electors to clinch his fourth term as South Korea's only president. He was expected to hit this mark early tomorrow in the laborious manual count which began tonight.

Hoffa Hits Critics

NEW YORK (UPI) — Teamsters Union president James R. Hoffa, hurled criticisms at most of his adversaries last night at a Madison Square Garden rally.

An estimated 8,000 cheering Teamsters and members of their families half-filled the Garden.

The Teamsters president had angry words for recent labor legislation. Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), his brother, "little Bobby Kennedy," AFL-CIO president George Meany, United Auto Workers Union president Walter Reuther, the press, radio and television.

New Racial Violence

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
Negro sitdown demonstrations appeared to be diminishing in the South today in the face of mass convictions and firm police action but new racial violence was reported in two cities.

At Charleston, S. C., Grady McMakin, 24, a white service station attendant, told police six Negro youths carved crude "KKK" initials in his back, beat him up and robbed him of $40.

In New Orleans, Michael Torich, 17, told police a Negro teen-ager stabbed him in the back Sunday night as he waited for a bus.

Older Pilots Grounded

CHICAGO (UPI) — Commercial airline pilots over 60 years old became victims of the jet age today when the Federal Aviation Agency ordered them grounded.

The union representing the pilots said it would "go all the way to the supreme court" in an effort to upset the FAA ruling which clips the wings of some of the nation's finest pilots.

The government said it issued the order as a safety measure because pilots are required to fly the "newest and hottest" in jet planes and older men might not be as alert as younger pilots in cases of emergency.

Warden Should Keep No Vital Confessions A Secret

One of the unexpected results of the Sacramento hearing on capital punishment was testimony that one woman executed in San Quentin had confessed her guilt just before she died.

The case was particularly notable because the woman involved was Barbara Graham, whose life was made into a widely-known motion picture the climax of which was her death in the gas chamber still protesting her innocence.

The fact that a motion picture was made in this case is not the point, except that it was allowed to be shown without being refuted. The real point is that for some reason or other a state employee, the warden of San Quentin prison, took it upon himself to withhold a vital piece of information which the public had the right to know about the operation of its system of justice.

We are not attempting to malign the late Warden Harley Teets. We would like steps taken, however, to make sure that such a situation does not occur again.

There is no reason for a warden to keep confidential a death-bed confession by a convicted criminal. If a prisoner desires to confess for the good of his soul and without dropping his mask of innocence for the public, he can confess to his minister or priest, always available at such times.

But when the prisoner decides to unburden himself to a public official, that official should have no right to avoid an official report on such a confession. Certainly such a confession is a vital part of the record. It should not come to light in such a roundabout way as did the confession of Barbara Graham.

As we said, we have no intention of maligning the late warden. But we do thing that the Department of Corrections should have rules requiring their employees to make a part of the record any pertinent facts concerning any case.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

YOUR ETERNITY HAS BEGUN

Astronomers estimate the age the Milky Way to be 24 billion years.

They have made their study of the great galaxy of stars which include the sun with the help of California's 200-inch Mount Palomar telescope, largest in the world.

This new estimate is considerably higher than the previous one of 15 billion years. One astronomer said that if the latest figure proves to be correct it would cause some confusion as it might indicate that previous heavenly "yardsticks" had been incorrect.

A few billion years more or less doesn't mean much to most people. In fact, it is difficult enough to comprehend the length of time encompassed by a million years.

But it is a staggering thought that should make you pause, reflect and pray on the brevity of life in comparison to the endless ages of an eternity that you began the minute you were born.

"Do not be ignorant of this one thing, that one day with the Lord is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day."

(II Peter 3:8)

Never let me forget, O Lord, that life is only the testing ground for eternity.

If You're Going To Butter Boss At All, Butter Him Up All Over

NEW YORK (UPI) — Boss buttering is a fine art in America.

But it is amazing how few people are really expert at it.

"I don't want to be surrounded by yes men," a boss may say. "I need someone around here who can tell me when I am wrong."

But he doesn't really mean it. His wife will tell him when he is wrong. So will the chairman of the board.

What he really needs is someone who will build up his confidence by making him feel right — whether what he has done is right or wrong.

This takes a skilled "yes man," and it is surprising how few there are around.

If you're going to butter the boss at all, butter him all over.

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

Directors of the Golden Gate Bridge said they were studying the possibility of cutting the 50-cent toll charge to 35 cents or even as low as 25 cents.

One hundred citizens interested in a proposed Marin County youth survey objected strenuously because the board of supervisors kept them waiting two hours for a hearing. Supervisor William D. Fusselman said he'd "had my scalp taken off a couple of times about it."

THE CYNIC'S CORNER

20 YEARS AGO

E. R. Cato of the California Highway Patrol told Marinites that Saturday and Sunday are "drunk driving days." In a period of three months, county records showed that 50 per cent of the accidents were due to intoxication.

San Rafael streets were so full of loose dogs endangered by autos that at least one woman refused to shop in the city because of pity for the poosches, reported Marin Journal columnist Mabel Ketchum Eastman.

Six Drake High Seniors Featured In Article On Higher Education

"They, and others like them have most at stake in the big decisions that will be made in higher education this year."

This statement, referring to six seniors at Sir Francis Drake High School, appeared in the February issue of California Monthly, a periodical of the University of California Alumni Assn.

Almost the entire issue was devoted to the story of "Higher Education in California in a Year of Decision," with the Drake youngsters featured in a four-page illustrated article.

The unsigned story put the spotlight on Janet Berry, Frank Divita and Norma Jean Fong of Fairfax and Carol Franchini, Diane Kliforth and Richard Sater of San Anselmo. All are planning to enter college next fall.

"THEIR OBSERVATIONS on higher education," said the article, "are naturally devoid of concern for differentiation of function, coordinating councils or campus priorities. But their enthusiasms, and ambitions, personal though they may be, are, in the end, at one with society's."

Two of the Drake students — Miss Kliforth and Divita — told the magazine's editors they have decided to enroll at College of Marin. Miss Franchini and Miss Fong have selected UC; Miss Berry, San Francisco State College; and Sater, San Jose State.

"YOU ARE nowhere without college," Sater, Drake student body president, told the editors. "You need a degree to get any good job."

Sater is planning to enter San Jose State because "they have good business connections and can get you started in a good job when you graduate. And I've heard they have a good public relations course."

The magazine said Sater "For years . . . has put aside 10 per cent of all money he earns (this year at Woolworth's) toward college."

Will We Be Able To Meet Challenge Of Our Times And Keep Freedom?

WASHINGTON — Here at home the overriding question is how to pay for the public needs of our growing population in an era when our social order is relentlessly challenging.

In 1957, when we spent 86.4 publicly, we were taking 20 per cent of our national production, leaving 80 per cent in private hands. What would be the situation in 1967 if we carry out the programs to meet public needs which are recommended in the Rockefeller Report?

THE ROCKEFELLER estimates show that on the feasible assumption that our gross national product can grow at a rate of 4 per cent per year, the share taken for public purposes in 1967, if their recommendations as to what is desirable are followed, would be only 24 per cent and the share left in private hands would be 76 per cent. This would mean that the rise in private consumption, which on the average has been 2 per cent per year, would drop to 1.4 per cent.

We would not be raising our private standard of life quite so fast as we are now. But we would be raising our public standard and we would be doing it with three-quarters of our product still in private hands.

One way to go about deciding it is to look at the problem quantitatively and concretely, and not abstractly and in generalities. Let us then look at some figures.

I AM TAKING my figures from the Fourth Report of The Rockefeller Brothers Fund which was issued in 1958. It covers all government expenditures, federal, state, and local, which are for the purchase of goods and services. The report is, by common consent I believe, expert, disinterested, and obviously it is not partisan.

In 1957 all government purchases of goods and services come to 86.4 billions. In 1967, if we meet the public needs for defense and other things which the authors of the report are agreed upon, the cost will be 153 billions (in 1957 dollars). This gives us an idea

"Every time we hear of a great need, we feel like doing a little to help out."

Ike, Adenauer Take Firm Berlin Stand

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer agreed today that any new agreement on West Berlin's future must preserve the freedom of the people and give them the right of self-determination.

The two leaders, after a White House conference of nearly two hours, also pledged anew to continue effort to unify all Germany in peace and freedom.

The 84-year-old German leader, a satisfied smile on his face, said he was convinced that the Western allies intend to stand firm in West Berlin.

Fairfax Council Orders Installation Of Walks

It looks like the appearance of Fairfax's Bolinas road is in for a few changes, according to a ruling made by the city council last night.

Residents living on blocks where 50 per cent of the sidewalk is already installed are going to be told by Charles N. Thornton, street superintendent, to install the remaining 50 per cent.

The action, passed by four aye votes, was based on the state's Streets and Highway Code.

Mayor Edward A. Smith introduced a resolution, citing the danger of lack of pavements caused in forcing school children to walk in the center of the road to avoid deep puddles and ruts.

Councilmen Albert Fox, Kenneth M. Edgar, William L. Hughes and Mayor Smith voted for the resolution. Street Commissioner Rolfe M. Ockenden abstained.

Thornton was also instructed by the council to accept bids for a new Fordson tractor for his department.

EVEN THE SET CAN TELL WHEN TELEVISION PROGRAM SMELLS

BAY SHORE, N. Y. (UPI) — When hospital patient Edward McBride wants to switch television programs, he can press his remote control gadget—or squeeze a can of air deodorant. Either one does the job.

McBride was perfectly happy with the show on his remote control TV set yesterday. He just wanted to freshen up his hospital room a bit. So he squirted the air deodorant can. Presto, a new channel flicked on. With each squirt, he found, a new channel popped up. The can worked on ten other TV sets in the hospital and failed on five. Other push-button cans did nothing except what they were supposed to do.

A TV specialist explained that through some fluke the deodorant can had created an ultra-high frequency sound wave that triggered the channel-changing mechanism in the sets.

Fairfax Keeps Garbage Rate

The cost of garbage collection in Fairfax will remain unchanged, the Fairfax City Council ruled last night in agreeing to a five-year extension of the Fairfax Garbage Disposal's franchise.

Rico Roffi and Arthur Moates, who operate the garbage collection service, had requested an over-all 25 cent monthly increase in rates at the January meeting. The owners are considering the purchase of a fully equipped truck costing about $13,000 and expressed their need for expansion and increased daily expenses.

The firm had also requested an extension of the franchise or a 10-year period.

U.S. Breaks Job Record As Unemployment Drops

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The number of Americans holding jobs last month increased to a February record of 64,520,000 while unemployment dipped slightly below four million, the government announced today.

Employment jumped by an even 500,000 to reach a new monthly peak more than one million above the previous February high reached in 1957.

Reversing the usual February trend, unemployment declined by 188,000 to 3,931,000 last month.

The gain in employment exceeded the drop in joblessness because many newcomers entered the labor force in February.

Hawk Gets Last Word

Don Corson, the driver, said the hawk smashed through the truck's windshield, bit him on the leg twice and flew out the window.

Missing Man Back Home; No Kidnapping

Henry Saenz, 39-year-old San Francisco real estate broker sought as a "kidnap victim," walked calmly into Sabella's restaurant in Alto yesterday.

Luciano Sabella, a friend of Saenz, got the surprise of the month when he looked up to see his friend walking to a table, perfectly unconcerned. Police throughout California and Nevada had been put on alert for Saenz after his wife, Rita, reported she had received a telephone call Saturday from a man who said, "I'm going to get your husband today."

Saenz had a simple explanation. He'd gone to Reno for the weekend. He was unaware of the excitement over his "disappearance" until Sabella told him about it.

Sausalito Citizens Seek Zoning Delay

The Sausalito Citizens Advisory Zoning Committee will present a petition to the city council tonight asking delay on the proposed zoning ordinance for six months.

The committee, formed last week, is studying the new ordinance in the light of the effect it will have as opposed to the present ordinance, Chairman Alan H. Scurfield said today. The new ordinance is also under study by the planning commission.

Scurfield said about 125 citizens attended the zoning committee meeting last night, at which groups were set up to make studies on five zones and bring in reports on April 4. The five zones are residential, commercial, apartment, industrial and waterfront.

Sausalito City Council Faces Heavy Agenda

The Sausalito City Council will face a heavy agenda at its meeting tonight, and two of the requests are more than a little familiar.

They are matters which were given back to the planning commission two weeks ago on a technicality and are now back at the council: A request for a use permit to allow Views Land Co. to build two apartment houses at Shelter Cove, and a request for a use permit and variance for Rob Rose to build shops and a restaurant on El Portal street.

Other matters on the agenda include a request for a variance for Sally Stanford's Valhalla Restaurant, a request for rezoning by Albert K. Engel of the Glad Hand Restaurant, and a report from the planning commission on the proposed expansion of dining area at the Alta Mira Hotel.

Tam Mothers Hear Talk On Writing

"Good writing comes from good thinking," and although effort is extremely commendable, "poor writing is still poor writing" when it comes to evaluation of a student's work.

So said Harry L. Belgrade, English teacher at Sir Francis Drake High School during a question and answer session with 25 mothers who informally study the program of the Tamalpais Union High School District and elementary schools within the district.

The meeting was held Thursday at the home of Mrs. Leonard Martin, Upper Ames road, Ross. Chairman was Mrs. James S. Russell.

Belgrade explained the Tamalpais district course of study from the freshman through senior years, told what texts were used, how ability grouping is done, the problem of class sizes, the "creative" versus fundamental techniques of teaching English, relationship of grammar and foreign language study, and the tightening up of university requirements.

TB Patients Get Stuffed Animals From Church Girls

Tuberculosis patients at the Terrace of Ross Hospital were presented with stuffed toys by a group of teen-age girls from the First Baptist Church of San Rafael recently.

The girls had made the toys for children patients at the hospital and after learning there were no youngsters hospitalized sent the gifts to adult patients so they in turn could send them on to their own children at home, said Mrs. H. Corwin Hinshaw, patients service committee chairman of the Marin County Tuberculosis Assn.

Girls that made the toys as a community mission project under the direction of Mrs. Clayton Harrop of San Rafael are: Jennie Fisher, Judy White, Connie McCall, Sandra McCall and Carol Nichols.

Journeys off the main highway included inspection of small lakes in the area.

Fairfax City Streets To Be Swept Oftener

Fairfax streets will be swept three days a week for a 90-day trial period, the city council decided last night after reviewing a petition signed by 29 residents requesting the broom be applied to the pavements daily.

Street Supt. Charles N. Thornton said the petition was started when the city's street sweeper was out of commission for eight days, but that he had the streets "swept by hand" during that time when they got "too bad."

Mayor Edward A. Smith recalled the streets were "pretty bad" and suggested the compromise to sweep the streets every Monday, Wednesday and Friday. If this does not prove satisfactory over a 90-day period, the city might have to consider hiring an extra man to sweep under parked cars with a broom and cart, the mayor suggested.

Councilman Kenneth M. Edgar objected that most of the names on the petition were those of downtown merchants, and that they did not help the situation by piling empty boxes in front of their shops.

After the 90-day trial had been accepted by the council, Councilman Rolfe M. Ockenenden moved to ask the Fairfax Merchants Assn. if they were going to decorate the town for Christmas. The motion was seconded by Edgar but voted down by Smith, Hughes and Albert Fox.

Mrs. Claude C. Miller of 40 Manor road complained to the council that when it storms a "whole street of water backs into my driveway leaving about 125 feet of mud slick."

Mayor Smith instructed Street Superintendent Thornton to "see what can be done."

West Marin Board Reaffirms Support Of Unification Study

The West Marin School District board last night reaffirmed its stand in calling for a study of unification.

The trustees instructed Supt. George Stratton to write a letter to the Marin County Committee on School District Organization asking that a study of the west coast area be expedited.

The board took under advisement a request from a group of parents for establishment of a kindergarten.

Stratton told the board that the education code would allow it to set up such classes only between June 1 and Aug. 1.

He also presented alternatives on setting up a kindergarten, and said any would mean added costs in transportation or construction. Stratton said that perhaps a surplus metal building could be constructed, but that in any case there probably would have to be some double sessions.

The board instructed Stratton to find out how the district can obtain more state aid. He said he would have a report ready for the next meeting, and that probably the board would call for an election to seek voter approval for more state aid. He said the district already is bonded to capacity.

In other action, the board:

1. Set up a one-year salary schedule. Beginning teachers will be paid $3,500 and teachers with 12 years experience and bachelor's degree plus at least 45 units of graduate work will get $7,950. The average increase will be $300 a year. This is effective July 1.

2. Raised Stratton's salary, effective July 1, from $7,800 to $8,400 a year.

3. Voted to hire another bus driver-custodian so the district will have two full-time men. Salary will be set later.

Point Reyes Area Tours Scheduled

Dr. Paul Wilson, head of the science department of the College of Marin, will lead tours of the Pt. Reyes Peninsula areas considered for a new national park next Saturday and the following Saturday. The public is invited and instructions as to meeting places may be obtained from Mrs. E. D. Lederman, 16 Tree Top way, Kentfield.

A recent tour by women interested in adding this territory to the federal park system was led from Kentfield by Mrs. Russell Merret, being joined on the way by residents of Novato and Inverness. First halt was made at Tomales Bay to inspect oyster "farming" there.

The party visited Drake's Bay where picnic lunches were served and area chairmen spoke including Mrs. Joseph A. Moore of Mill Valley, Mrs. Bernard Stone of Kentfield and Ross, and Henry Short of Tiburon.

Journeys off the main highway included inspection of small lakes in the area.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Here's Advice On How To File State Form

By PETER J. WIKEL, CPA

California income tax returns for the calendar year 1959 should be filed with the Franchise Tax Board, 1025 P street, Sacramento 14, Calif., before April 15, 1960.

You are required to file a California income tax return if you are: Single and have a net income of $1,500 or over; or, if in either case your gross income is $5,000 or over.

The determination of whether you are single or married is made as of the last day of the year. If you were married on Dec. 31, 1959 you are considered as being married for the full year.

If your spouse died during the year, the determination of whether you are married is made at the date of death.

If you have separated, but had not received your final de-

Which man is a PG&E owner?

Probably both of them are... because PG&E is owned by thousands and thousands of men and women from all walks of life. No one of them owns as much as one-tenth of 1% of the Company. And whether you're one of our 225,000 shareholders or not, you have a stake in PG&E ownership if you have an insurance policy or participate in a pension plan, or own shares in a mutual fund. PG&E securities are held by such institutional investors as these. Thus directly or indirectly nearly everybody is an owner of PG&E... and probably you are too!

The BULLPEN

With JOHN J. CONNOLY

I-J Cactus League Reporter Gives Boston Red Sox The Once Over

SCOTTSDALE, Arizona—You never think of the Red Sox without thinking what is left of Ted Williams, commonly mentioned as the Slender Splinter.

For the last two years writers have been counting him out. Some of them will be glad, and others sad when he quits or hangs up the tools. He's the most controversial man in baseball and has been for many years.

Last May 30 Ted celebrated an event that few others can match. It was his 20th anniversary with the Boston team.

All during those years he has been a marked man and as he gets ready to celebrate his 21st year in harness, the betting is that he will play 70 to 75 games in the coming season, hit at least eight home runs which will bring his lifetime home run record to 500 and wind up with an all-time batting mark close to .350. Right now Ted is in finer shape than he was a year ago, is working harder and to date hasn't been too severely criticized by the writers.

Last week the Boston writers made quite a story of the fact that their star outfielder was working out with some youngsters on the club.

I think the Red Sox clientele regard Ted as the greatest pinch hitter of his time. Last year he had a season average of .458 as a clutch hitter and in the last three weeks of the season made seven hits in thirteen times. Against the Yankees he hit 10 safeties in 20 times at bat at Fenway Park.

AS YOU CHECK over the career of Williams you wonder how come he is winding up his career with a kink in his neck.

The stories here say Ted only thinks he has a kink. One reporter who lived next door to Ted in camp, reports that Ted was diving off the springboard and hurt his neck that way.

Even the doctors who are treating Williams never quite agree, according to reports in certain quarters.

The trainer of the Red Sox, Jack Fadden, claims the only reason he has to go to confession is due to the many many fibs he feeds Williams.

THERE ARE SO many yarns about Ted one wonders which are the most important to the many admirers of the former Coast Leaguer. On good authority he was offered a huge salary by a TV chain to replace Leo Durocher. They say he can write his own ticket to a 10-year contract any time he says the word.

At 42 years of age no player in the history of baseball looks finer than Ted. He is 15 years younger than his age and he carries 215 pounds around on his six foot frame with the greatest of grace.

COVERING THE RED SOX camp reporters find themselves not concerning themselves with where the club finishes.

For instance, ranking in the second spot behind Williams for gossip, is the story on why Jackie Jensen quit. Not many players will go for the yarn about Jensen quitting because he doesn't like air travel. One story is that the stock broker Dean Witter, a fellow University of California alumnus with Jensen, made Jackie so much money on good investments that he has to stick around to watch the money bag swell.

KNOCKED THROUGH ROPES

Willie Besmanoff lands outside the ropes after taking a furious two-handed attack from Tom McNeely in the 10th round of their heavyweight bout at the Boston Garden last night. McNeely, of Arlington, Mass., kept his undefeated record intact with a 10-round decision over Besmanoff. (AP Wirephoto)

Rams Lose Again—In Player Deal This Time

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Long before he has fielded his first team, Coach Bob Waterfield of the Los Angeles Rams admits he has been slickered by the Dallas Rangers.

Dallas, a new club acquiring manpower from other National Football League teams, picked former all-pro guard Duane Putnam, tackle Bob Fry and defensive back Tom Franckhauser from the 11 players the Rams made eligible.

"I thought they would take other men on my list, but I didn't believe they would go for Putnam and Fry," said Waterfield. "It's a crime and I'm sick about it . . .

"I'll tell you one thing. Dallas won't finish at the bottom of the league. They've done all right and they have other players coming, plus first take on all men placed on waivers this fall."

Waterfield said the Rams had to put talent on the line, that he gambled and lost.

But nobody seems to care as long as they have Ted Williams to talk about and prepare Carl Michael Yastrzemski to take over the Red Sox news when and if Ted quits.

U.C.-Cincy Game Seen As Tossup

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Rene Herreras, California's present assistant basketball coach and the head coach-to-be, figures Friday's NCAA semi-final against Cincinnati at just about a standoff.

"We're tougher than we were a year ago," Herreras declared after scouting Cincinnati in the Midwest regionals, "but Cincinnati is definitely stronger."

The little coach, who moves up to the head job when Pete Newell takes over the Cal athletic directorship, said California, defending NCAA champion, won't have the advantage of surprise as it did last year.

UNHERALDED

The Bears went into the tournament at Louisville unheralded, stopped Oscar Robertson and Cincinnati 64-58, then beat West Virginia 71-70 for the title.

Friday the two teams meet in the Cow Palace after Ohio State meets New York University.

Herreras said Robertson, the nation's leading scorer three years in a row, is still the same Big O, but this year he has a stronger supporting cast.

"The big difference," he said, "is Cincinnati's 6-9 sophomore center Paul Hogue. I'm told he was somewhat uncoordinated at the start of the season, but he certainly didn't look it last week."

SECOND THREAT

"He takes a lot of pressure off Robertson. When the defense collapses on Oscar, the Big O passes off to Hogue and he dunks one. Hogue gives Cincinnati the good big man it lacked last year."

Herreras added that Cincinnati doesn't make many mistakes, that the club is better than last year's defensively and on rebounding.

"They can come through," Herreras said, "look at their record."

It's 27-1, same as California.

DAVEY MOORE'S JAW BROKEN BY UNKNOWN

CARACAS, Venezuela (UPI)—A little known Venezuelan fighter broke world featherweight champion Davey Moore's jaw and forced the Springfield, Ohio, scrapper to leave the ring in the seventh round of a scheduled 10-round nine-title bout last night.

Young Carlos Hernandez rocked Moore with a hard right in the third round and sent him down for a six count. Moore clinched and waited for the bell.

It appeared it was the third round blow that fractured Moore's jaw. After the fight, his jaw was placed in a cast.

Moore weighed 127 1/4, Hernandez, 130.

"I don't even remember all the players who were there," he said. "The players certainly didn't threaten to quit while in the office. It's not uncommon for athletes to drop in and talk about their respective sports."

The players involved—John Mackin Favored In Oakland Bout

OAKLAND (UPI)—Lyle Mackin, power-punching Oakland welterweight, was favored over Karl Heinz Guder, Los Angeles, in their 10-round rematch tonight at Oakland Auditorium.

Mackin scored a ninth-round TKO over Guder last month.

The Oaklander, however, almost lost the fight when he suffered a badly cut left eyelid.

Mackin boasts a 17-1 record. He has stopped 12 opponents.

Guder's record is 27-14-2. He has scored 21 knockouts.

The man is Wilt Chamberlain who set another record last night in leading the Warriors to 132-112 trouncing of the Syracuse Nats in the decisive finale in their three-game preliminary series.

A year ago, the Warriors were the Eastern Division doormats and didn't get into the series.

Seven-foot-one Wilt the Stilt hit for 53 points, three more than the old playoff record.

It was the ninth record Wilt set in his one-year NBA career.

Denials Flying In USC Basketball Controversy

RUDOMETKIN and four other sophomores, Verne Ashby, Ken Stanley, Chris Appel and Neil Edwards—also denied any threats of quitting.

But Rudometkin, leading scorer of the Trojan team this season, added:

"I'm sure it (16-11 season) was partly my fault, but when things went wrong I didn't receive the coaching help I needed."

Wilt Boosts Club Into Loop Playoff

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—What a difference a year—and a man—has made in the Philadelphia Warriors. They're heading into the National Basketball Assn.'s Eastern Division final playoffs.

Fishing For Bass Excellent, With Prospects Better

Striped bass fishing has been excellent the past two years—prospects are looking better to more and larger fish.

Where else in the country can you enjoy the pleasure of catching the finest inland water game fish throughout the entire year?

At the present time many limits of stripers are being taken on the Hamilton Field flats on bait. The fish are concentrated on the clam beds near Corregidor and the pump house.

Last Sunday well over 100 boats from skiffs to cruisers were at the fishing grounds—yes, even the game wardens were present.

The writer landed a 10 pounder, and seven stripers were taken by the party, along with a fine take of flounders. A good number of undersized bass were released.

During the entire winter months striped bass fishing from Red Rock to Raccoon Straits has been unheard of. Fish were taken by trolling.

By next month striped bass fishing should be good in the San Quentin area and on the flats.

Two large sturgeon were hooked weighing in at 60 and 93 pounds.

Loss Of Trout In Hatcheries Drops

Unusual losses of sub-catchable rainbow trout being reared at six northern hatcheries have dropped to near normal, following an initial heavy loss from a sudden flare-up of a mystery disease, according to hatchery officials.

The disease, the exact cause of which baffled department scientists, killed more than half of a group of 900,000 fish at Darrah Springs Hatchery and lesser numbers at the other northern installations.

Contamination in a batch of fish food pellets is suspected, but to date tests have failed to pinpoint the cause.

Changing the fish's diet has reduced the losses to near normal at most plants.

The die-off won't have any noticeable effect on the total season's trout planting program, but will have a slight effect on early season plants in Northern California. Fish will be brought north from Central California hatcheries to help offset the loss.

and ending Sunday, March 20. A galaxy of boats of every size and description will be on display along with the new outboard motors ranging up to 80 horsepower. Marin County is leader in boating and is justly proud of its many boat building plants and distributors.

Dozens of booths, where rods, reels and all the necessary paraphernalia to make a sportsman happy will be on display. Sound pictures will be shown throughout the show. We know everyone will be interested in these great out-of-doors pictures.

Remember—there'll be something doing every minute throughout the entire run of the show that will interest you.

EXHIBITIONS

This year in the pool, several skin diving exhibitions will be performed by Charles M. Smith, skin and scuba diving expert.

Members of the Ann Curtis Cuneo water ballet will put on a swimming aquacade during the Saturday and Sunday performances.

UNIQUE

The Northwood Bowmen's Club will demonstrate the technique of bow and arrow shooting. Several tournaments will be shown during the show.

This show is the only sports show in the state sponsored by sportsmen and the proceeds will go to active conservation programs.

Here's the real surprise—and don't forget it. There is no admission charge to get into the show or to get out. It's a big bargain any way you look at it. All you have to do is to attend the show with your friends and family. Attend every day of the show.

Dozens of awards will be given away during the show.

CHAIRMEN

Co-chairmen Barney De Bisschop and John (Monty) Marzetta and their large committee have done a real job this year to present to you the finest show ever held in Marin.

The large auditorium will be decorated like the great outdoors, trees and everything. A large tent annex has been erected to take care of the many exhibitors.

Let's go! It's going to be fun.

Club's Auxiliary To Have Booth At Sports Show

The Ladies Auxiliary of Marin Rod and Gun Club will maintain a booth at the forthcoming Sports Show where a committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Helen Marzetta, will conduct their membership drive. On exhibition will be the display cases which the Auxiliary donated to the Junior Museum. Visitors will learn of the conservation program carried on throughout the year and the essay contest among the school children which stimulated much interest and brought awards to several.

The present project is the printing of signs for fishing regulations by the Ladies Auxiliary, which will be distributed and posted by Game Warden Al Giddings.

In addition, guests will learn of the social functions and the fishing activities at the pier, lakes and streams.

President Carolyn Lato hopes to see all the Auxiliary members and as many prospective members as possible at the Sports Show booth.

LESSON

Everyone who fishes should attend this meeting to learn how and why certain things are done when casting. Accurate casting is an important asset in catching fish! The ability to place the temptation before the victim is of paramount importance and one way to learn is to watch an experienced caster.

SHOW, TOO

The opening of the Marin Rod and Sports Show should not interfere with plans of attending the meeting. Start out a little early, see the interesting exhibits at the show and get to the clubhouse in time to watch a most interesting and skillful caster in action.

Every member is urged to attend this meeting—and be sure to bring along your sportsmen friends with you.

Refreshments

Refreshments will be served during the evening.

Salmon fishing outside the Golden Gate has been slow. Last Thursday and Friday were the best fishing days since the season started.

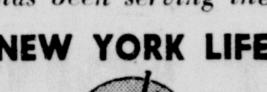

A number of large fish were taken near the lightship.

Sportsmen Of Redwood Unit Urge Law Changes

At the March 6 meeting of the Sportsmen's Council of the Redwood Empire held in Santa Rosa the following proposed changes in 1960 Hunting Regulations were adopted for forwarding to the Fish and Game Commission prior to its April meeting.

COASTAL DEER SEASON: Open August 6, 1960, close September 11, 1960.

INLAND DEER SEASON: Open September 24, 1960, close October 30, 1960.

PHEASANTS: Recommend that there be a sixteen (16) day season (three weekends), no hen in the bag.

QUAIL: Open season on the first Saturday in November and close season on first Sunday in January.

DUCKS: Allow shooting to start one-half hour before sunrise, stop shooting at sunset.

It was also agreed by the delegates that the S.C.R.E. would oppose any lengthening of the deer season for bow and arrow hunters.

The suggestion that the Cow Mountain area in Mendocino County be used for experimental antlerless deer hunts was opposed on recommendation of the Ukiah Rod and Gun Club. It was felt that these shoots should be held in areas that favored antlerless hunts.

On the Fish & Game Department's request for forty-two (42) new positions in the fiscal year 1960-61 at a cost of $240,000, the S.C.R.E. agreed to support the request to the extent that such new positions are proven to be necessary for efficient

Boats Must Be Registered With State

All boat owners are required to register their boats under the new State Boat Registration Act. The signup started on March 1 by the Department of Motor Vehicles in Marin and other counties.

A fee of $5.00 per boat is charged for the registration, at which time new numbers will be assigned to every boat.

Under the State Boat Registration Act, all undocumented boats using the waters of California must be registered as of April 1, 1960.

EXEMPTIONS

The only exemptions are boats propelled solely by paddles or oars (if you occasionally hang a two-horsepower kicker on your rowboat or canoe it must be registered), sailboats under eight feet in length, a ship's lifeboat, government owned craft, and boats propelled by electric motors of 10 horsepower or less. For your information and guidance, electric motors are mighty scarce and should not be confused with regular gas operated outboards.

RULE GIVEN

As to documented boats, these are almost exclusively pleasure craft displacing five tons which are registered with the U.S. Customs. As a rule of thumb unless your pride and joy is on the bragging size of 30 feet, documentation isn't a consideration.

Most of the Councils in the northern part of the state consist of small clubs with limited finances. In the past some of them have not been able to attend G.W.F. meetings and Commission meetings and consequently a large area has not been adequately represented.

It is felt that a consolidated group of northern Councils would be better financed and could adequately represent the area. Delegates from the Sportsmen's Council of the Redwood Empire who will attend the meeting are Ray Welsh, Fort Bragg; Jack Mitchel, Potter Valley; and G. Paul Jones, San Rafael.

SIX-HOUR JOB

Members Install New Boat Dock

The astounding determination of the boat owners, members of the Marin Rod & Gun Club, has shown that results can be achieved by determination.

Twenty men showed up ready for work, and the job was completed in six hours.

The floating dock has been extended seventy feet beyond the replaced one, making a total of one hundred and seventy feet.

The Channel has been dredged to a low tide depth of six to nine feet out to deep water.

Special thanks is given to Jim Walker for the use of his jeep, and Jack Phillips for the use of his chain saw.

The boat ramp committee wishes to thank and congratulate the following members on their successful efforts.

Scholarship Group Outlines Steps For Upgrading College Of Marin

Marin Junior College District trustees last night complimented the College of Marin scholarship committee for its suggestions for upgrading the institution scholastically, but warned they expect to make some changes in the recommendations before adopting them.

The committee and trustees discussed the committee report, in the presence of an Independent-Journal representative, after a potluck dinner in the faculty lounge.

It was one of a series of reports by committees created in an attempt to correct deficiencies found by an accreditation team that visited the Kentfield campus last year. Yet to be gone over is the report of the guidance and counseling committee.

Some of the scholarship committee's recommendations:

1. That the grade point average below which a student will be placed on probation be raised from 1.67 to 1.75, but that the average below which he will be dismissed be lowered from 1.17 to 1.00 (a straight D average).

2. That no entering student be accepted on probationary status for his first semester.

3. That whether a student shall be permitted to take a "status one" course of study (intended for those who will complete work leading to a bachelor's degree after graduation from the two-year college) be determined "only on the basis of his grades in academic subjects in high school.

Kempf and Mrs. Deedy noted, however, that a high grade in physical education and orientation could save an otherwise failing student. Kempf said he did not believe such "fringe courses" should be considered in deciding whether a student should be dropped.

Dean of Men (and former coach) Irwin Diamond took exception to this viewpoint. You can't say one course counts and another one doesn't, he insisted. College President Ward H. Austin said he considers orientation one of the most important courses in the school.

Trustees found no fault with the "no probation on entry" rule which, Austin said, prevails at University of California, state colleges and most junior colleges. They recommended the committee on revising the "status one" requirements.

Considerable discussion developed over whether parents should be sent grades of students so they will know when their offspring are on the point of failure.

Kempf and Deedy suggested mid-term grades be sent to parents. Trustee Kent O. Seymour differed, declaring, "I don't see how we can continue to treat them as high school students." He was backed in this view by Clymer and Diamond.

It developed that neither mid-term nor final grades are mailed to the parents.

All trustees at length seemed to agree on a compromise proposed by Seymour: That when a student enrolls, a letter be written his parents with a card enclosed on which they could check whether they wish mid-term grades and other information on the student's progress.

"Then if they don't want it, we won't bother to send it to them," he suggested.

President Austin concurred with this idea.

The status of last evening's meeting had come into question, since all trustees were present and the trustees had set a date for it—yet Clymer had announced it as a meeting of the committee, with the board invited but the press and public barred.

Chairman Kempf and Mrs. Deedy both made note of the fact that the present college board has been careful to conduct its business in public and has made consistent attempts to keep the public informed. They called the dispute over the status of last evening's meeting a mis-understanding.

"To my knowledge," said Mrs. Deedy, "this is the first time other than for salary conferences that the board as a whole has met with any faculty committee. . . . It's not a place where we are doing any school business. It's an attempt to thresh out some points of view and reconcile different philosophies."

Harlan, publisher of Marin News and Guide and a San Francisco district shopping guide, is accused of failing to keep a separate bank deposit for withholding taxes and of making a false statement to the Internal Revenue Service.

House Group Backs School Compromise

Approved Measure Limits Funds To Construction Aid

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Education and Labor Committee approved a compromise 975 million dollar school construction bill today. The vote was 19 to 11.

The bill is a substitute for both a $1,800,000,000 school aid bill passed earlier this year by the Senate and a $4,400,000,000 measure approved by the House committee last year. Both those bills contained money for teachers' salaries, as well as school construction.

The substitute bill, limited to aid for school construction only, was approved by a vote generally following party lines.

Eighteen Democrats and one Republican, Rep. Peter Frelinghuysen Jr. (N.J.), were reported as voting for the measure at a closed session. Nine Republicans and two Democrats, Chairman Graham A. Barden (N.C.) and Rep. Phil M. Landrum (Ga.), opposed it.

The bill now goes to the House Rules Committee, which has had the committee's earlier and more expensive bill bottled up since last May. However, supporters were confident that the rules group would clear the new measure since it has been stripped of the controversial teachers' salaries section.

The measure includes features from both a school aid measure backed by House Democratic leaders and the Eisenhower administration's long-range aid plan.

It would provide grants to the states of $25 million dollars annually for three years. In the first year, starting July 1, states would not be required to put up matching funds. But they would have to furnish equal matching money in the last two years.

Thieves Take Paintings By Marin Artist

Four of 21 paintings being exhibited in a San Francisco hospital by a College of Marin art instructor were reported stolen yesterday.

San Francisco police said Howard A. West, Sutter Towers Hospital administrator, reported the paintings of Frank Milner were last seen hanging on the walls of the main hallway at 4:30 p.m., Sunday. They were not discovered missing however, until about 24 hours later.

The artist, of 8 Benton Court, Tiburon, estimated their total value at $800. Milner, an abstract-expressionist painter, who also teaches an adult evening drawing class at the college, said he has mixed emotions about the burglary.

"I'm flattered, of course, that my work was wanted, but at the same time, I wish it had been paid for," said Milner.

Drug Possessor Gets Jail Term

Worthington S. Lee, 23, of 545 West Blithedale Avenue, Mill Valley, drew two years probation and 90 days in county jail for having some marijuana debris in his jacket pockets last January.

Lee was arrested with two other men on suspicion of contributing to the delinquency of two girls, aged 16, who ran away from their home in Lafayette. But the delinquency charge against Lee was dropped on the recommendation of the district attorney, when Lee pleaded guilty to the narcotic charge.

Teenagers, Parents Exchange Viewpoints

Grievances against parents had been listed at previous meetings and the adults were invited to dinner at Whitaker Hall where they met separately.

Chapter NE, P.E.O. Elects New Officers

Mrs. W. D. Oberholtzer of Fairhills, San Rafael, is the new president of Chapter NE, P.E.O., succeeding Mrs. T. Ilion Jones of San Anselmo, who held the office for two years.

Officers were elected March 11 at the Fairhills home of Mrs. A. J. Brinckerhoff, with Mrs. John M. Bagshaw a co-hostess. Installation followed with Mrs. W. S. Price of Mill Valley, one of NE's first presidents, performing the installation ceremony in the absence of the retiring president because of illness.

Elected to serve on the staff with Mrs. Oberholtzer were Mrs. A. C. Kuehl, Kent Woodlands, vice president; Mrs. J. H. Hemingway, Mill Valley, recording secretary; Mrs. A. H. Wilcox, Novato, corresponding secretary. Mrs. John M. Bagshaw, San Rafael, was re-elected treasurer; Mrs. Larry Reed, Mill Valley, chaplain; Mrs. Joseph Sheeks, Corte Madera, guard.

Other offices in the Sisterhood are appointive.

The chapter heard with interest Mrs. Reed's report on the success of the recent P.E.O. Reciprocity Rummage Sale at Larkin Hall in San Francisco. Net results of the sale were $1800, with the NE booth collecting $117. The proceeds will help swell the fund for a second California state P.E.O. Home to be located in the northern area. The Sunnyvale "Next To New" shop, in charge of Bay Area members, is netting one thousand dollars a month towards this Home project. This shop has been in operation for many months and has resulted in such tremendous success that the San Francisco Reciprocity is considering opening a similar shop in San Francisco. This will bring the proposed northern home that much closer to reality. The Alhambra state home is filled to capacity and has a long waiting list.

A guest with the chapter members was Mrs. Anna Melvin Wilson, a member of Chapter EL, Hutchinson, Kansas. Mrs. Wilson and her sister, Mrs. J. B. Stevens, also a member of EL, have recently purchased a new home in Palo Alto to be near the latter's only son, Mrs. Stevens is an aunt of Mrs. Reed of NE.

Good-byes were said to Mrs. Samuel D. Archibald and Mrs. Roy A. Brown. Mrs. Archibald is leaving with her husband March 22 for a four months' trip to Texas, Rio de Janeiro, South Africa, Rome, Switzerland, Bavaria, Germany, Austria and the Scandinavian countries. Mrs. Brown expects to leave soon for a fifteen days' trip to New Orleans, Montego Bay in Jamaica, where Mr. Brown will be attending meetings of the Audit Bureau of Circulation and the Inter-American Press Association. Mr. Brown is a director of both associations. En route home, the Browns plan to visit Mexico City.

NE Guest Day will be observed March 25 at a luncheon meeting at the popular Kent Woodlands restaurant. Don Richmond, one of the decorators at the Dorothy Kell Furniture and Interiors, will be the guest speaker. Mrs. G. William Maglady is general chairman of arrangements.

Marin Club Plans Dance On Friday

The Marin Club, an organization for single people over 21, is holding a St. Patrick's dance on Friday, March 18. It will be at Bob's of Marin, Corte Madera, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

At the recent dance of the Marin Club the result of questionnaires indicated that the formation of a dance group was the most popular. Mrs. Evelyn Kirchner of Fairfax is in charge of the dance group. This group is open to those attending the regular dances who are interested in receiving dance instruction. The second activity in terms of popularity was a theater group. This would be comprised of people interested in attending plays as a group.

Recently a committee meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Bobbie Moore, Corte Madera. This present included the following members of the steering committee of the Marin Club: Dr. Kermit Kors, San Rafael; Mrs. Barbara Gordon, Mrs. Charlotte McNulty, Mrs. Jeanne Stevenson and Mrs. Loraine Hall, Fairfax; Miss Virginia Von Der Heide, San Anselmo. The steering committee is continuing to work on plans for the formal organization of a single people's group.

The young people objected to parents trying to be pals, planning study hours, giving unwanted help and insisting on too much time for home duties especially on school days.

Subjects which needed clarification according to the teenagers were forms of fair punishment, baby-sitting with younger brothers and sisters, transportation, and parents not observing the same standards demanded of children.

"Girls' parents should be decently dressed when the boy arrives to pick up his date," was the advice of the group.

All agreed that better communication between parents and teenagers and more mutual courtesy in their relations would ease the problems.

Among the families represented were the Blackmores, James Heynemans, David Teathers, Dick DeBerrys, Edwin Weeds, Robert Lamorees, Clinton Moshers, William H. V. Brookes, Ralph Noahs, Robert Bastians, George Bannings, Robert Bagnalls and Mrs. Mollic Love.

Parents considered the meeting so successful they may meet periodically to discuss the problems and exchange ideas with each other. Other meetings with the teenagers may also be planned.

The Youth Fellowship meets every Sunday evening at Whitaker Hall and is open to high school students whether or not they are members of the Episcopal parish.

Final Plans Made For Theatre Party

Final plans have been made by the Young Republicans of Marin for the Champagne-Theatre Party on Friday evening, March 18, when the organization sponsor the performance of "Pipe Dream" at the Gate Theatre in Sausalito. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. for the Rodgers and Hammerstein musical comedy, which is based on a book by John Steinbeck. "Sweet Thursday." This presentation of "Pipe Dream" by the Gate Players, a Sausalito little theatre group, has been highly praised.

Champagne will be served following the final curtain at white linen covered tables "on stage" and at the rear of the theatre. Napkins hand painted by Jessie Thomas of Mill Valley will be the focal point in the table decorations, and will be given to each guest with their champagne. The design on the napkin features an elephant, traditional symbol of the Republican Party, with a pink champagne glass in the background to commemorate the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett T. Grimes of Mill Valley are general chairmen for the event, assisted by Mrs. Willis H. Carrier II, refreshments; Mrs. William D. Keeler and Mrs. Thelma Moss, posters; Mrs. Gordon L. Ness, publicity; and the ticket committee, Mrs. Christian de Chekey, Mrs. John Schmitz, San Rafael; Mrs. Patrick W. Pollock, San Anselmo; Mrs. Keeler, Mrs. Carrier, and Mrs. Moss, of Mill Valley. They report the theatre is a sell-out. President of the group is William D. Keeler.

Officiating at the champagne tables will be John T. Schmitz, Harry S. Glaze, Gordon Ness, Robert E. Hosmer, Donald G. Black, Edward Thomas and Bruce B. Bales, all of San Rafael. Tickets will be taken at the door by Mrs. Ness, and programs presented by Mrs. Donald R. Holt of San Anselmo.

Among those entertaining before the play are Mr. and Mrs. Moss, who have issued dinner invitations to Mr. and Mrs. John Bozik of Mill Valley, Mr. and Mrs. James Hettrick of Marinwood, Mr. and Mrs. A. Donald Parr, Sausalito, Dr. and Mrs. W. Robert Sawyer and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Harris, San Francisco. Invitations have also been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Bales for a pre-theatre party.

Many of the theatre-goers will meet at Zack's in Sausalito following the champagne.

Every Parent Should Be Concerned At Lack Of Proper Playground Space

Is there a public playground near your home? Can your children get to it easily? Is there a trained leader on hand to guide their play?

If so, you're lucky. There are altogether too few playgrounds. Right?

I've been flying around the country. I've looked down on many hundreds of new subdivisions. The older parts of our cities usually have good playgrounds. But, except for a few acres around schools, the new parts don't have any.

We lack parks, too. Our cities are spreading all over the map. We could start new park systems, without too much cost. But we don't.

We put in miles of new homes, jammed close together, but do not think of recreation. We leave no breathing spaces. Our children's children will curse us for this.

We've even destroying our old parks. Did you know that? A great many superhighways go right through the middle of city parks. I'm told the highway folks plan them that way. Park land is cheaper for them than residential land.

I think they're shortsighted. So are we, to let them do it. Our children need space to run, to yell and play. They need space for group games, away from traffic. The old empty lots we played on are gone. The streets we used are jammed with cars. No wonder so many children are run over.

What can you do? If you feel as I do, bring this matter up with your Parent-Teacher Association board. Suggest a P-TA project on the subject of parks and play grounds. If your P-TA can't help, ask your lodge or women's club.

Better get going. Soon it will be too late.

(Q) "My girl is in a combination fourth and fifth grade class this semester. I am worried about it. Don't children in combination rooms lose out?"

(A) My experience is that they're more apt to benefit by the arrangement. Principals assign their best teachers to combination rooms. Teachers work extra hard, adjusting the assignments. In many schools children in combination rooms get along better than those in one-grade rooms.

Mrs. Booth Says She's Not Moving

Mrs. Carmel H. Booth, San Anselmo city councilman, said today she does not have her home at 25 Pasadena avenue for sale and has no intention of moving from San Anselmo before the end of her current city council term in 1962.

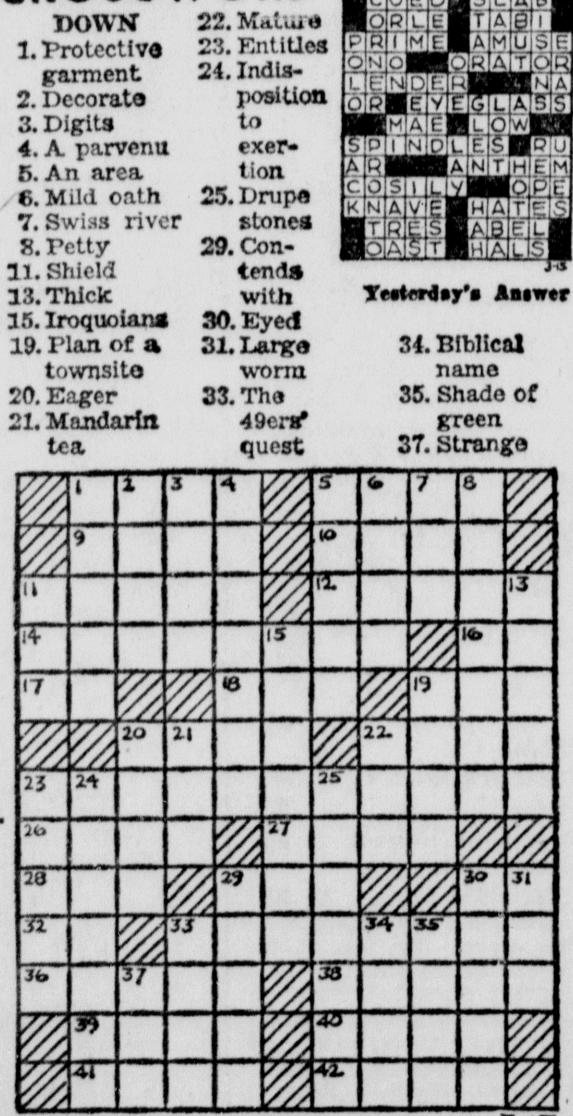

Mrs. Booth said the issue of her supposed move from the city had been interjected into the campaign for council. Two councilmen are to be elected April 12. Mrs. Booth is supporting incumbent Mayor Arthur W. Smith and Henry J. (Beck) Regalla against the San Anselmo, Citizens for Good Government slate of John W. Reichmuth and Robert E. Rousse.

Prison Inmates Discuss Decisions Affecting Destiny Of Our Country

By CHARLES L. IRVINE

Eighteen inmates of San Quentin Prison sit down in the quiet of one of the prison's library rooms each week and have a scholarly discussion on international events and this nation's foreign policy.

These men are members of one of the thousands of "Great Decisions, 1960" groups meeting throughout the country.

Sponsored by the Foreign Policy Assn., these discussion groups are designed to stimulate interest in United States' foreign policy and to get a cross-section of opinions on decisions in this field.

The discussions have special value to the men in San Quentin.

"In prison it's easy to lose your identity and become lethargic," one of them pointed out. "In joining the group I have a chance to express my personal opinion. This means a lot to me."

Another inmate put it this way: "In prison I can't do much, if anything, about what's going on in the world. By becoming part of the group, which I know to be affiliated with thousands of other similar groups, I feel I am actually taking part in what is going on, and getting in my 'two cents' worth. It gives you a sense of identity again."

"It's easy to become too introspective in prison," another member of the group pointed out. "By taking part in these discussions, listening to the other fellow's point of view, you get away from your own worries. You find you have things to say and that the other fellows respect you for your opinions. The discussions are a great help all around."

Receiving awards were Joseph P. Bowman, San Rafael;

Ralph Brott, Mill Valley; Hans C. Larsen, Mill Valley; John S. Mazza, San Rafael, and George Eddie Oliver, San Rafael.

Church Gives $2,000To Assist Another

"This is our way of saying that we're concerned for the worldwide Church of Christ—not just in Africa or India, but right here at home, as well."

The speaker was Rev. Robert C. Clapham of the First Presbyterian Church of San Anselmo. Beside him stood Linton C. Whitby, clerk of the session, with a check for $2,000 made out to Westminster Presbyterian Church of Richardson Bay.

Woman, 70, Given Term In Prison For Bad Checks

A 70-year-old San Anselmo woman, who passed several bad checks in Marin, was sentenced to the California Institution for Women at Corona yesterday at her own request.

Mrs. Mabel Dora Roberts of 411 Greenfield avenue told Judge N. Charles Brusatori she would rather go to Corona than to county jail. The judge declared he take no pleasure in sentencing a person of her age to prison, but he agreed that the county jail, with inadequate facilities, would be cruel punishment.

The judge ordered her sent to Corona for a term of up to 14 years. Mrs. Roberts has a previous record for bad checks and was on parole from state prison when she committed the Marin offenses.

LET'S FACE FACTS!

★ FACT: We live in a troubled world in which non-whites outnumber whites.

★ FACT: America is being judged the world over by how she copes with her racial issues.

★ FACT: One of these issues is housing: Will Americans continue to maintain illegal, immoral barriers against Orientals and Negroes?

★ FACT: The undersigned Marin residents are among the hundreds who have signed a pledge, in the coupon below, declaring that it's time to take a stand. They urge you to sign the same pledge.

Folk Singer To Appear At Jewish Center

Mira Gilbert, folk singer whose repertoire includes selections in almost a dozen languages, will appear at the Marin Jewish Community Center at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow in a program of interpretations of songs from many lands. Miss Gilbert has appeared extensively on radio and television, including the Margaret Arlen show and the Jewish Home Show in the east. Her work for a Washington radio station helped the station win a Peabody Award, radio's version of an Oscar. She comes to the Marin center as part of a nationwide tour sponsored by the National Jewish Welfare Board.

Miss Gilbert's specialty is the melodies of the Middle East with their original lyrics—in Hebrew, Arabic and Tartar. She also sings in French, Yiddish, Finnish and Spanish. Since Purim is celebrated this week, Miss Gilbert plans to include several songs related to this ancient Jewish festival. The program is open to the public. Tickets will be available tomorrow at the center, 1618 Mission avenue, San Rafael.

Weighty Thought

BALTIMORE (UPI) — If anyone offers you 200 pounds of any coin, take Carl C. Burke's word for it and choose quarters.

Burke says you would get $3,657 in quarters, as compared to only $3,636 in halves and a paltry $2,617 in silver dollars.

NEW YORK, N. Y. (Special) A major breakthrough in cough control is now announced with the introduction to the public of a new anti-cough tablet. It's a tiny tablet... to be taken with a sip of water. Working through the bloodstream, this remarkable tablet stops useless coughing up to 6 full hours. Called DONDRL Anti-Cough Tablets, this entirely new concept in cough control is now available without prescription.

The astonishing relief offered by DONDRL is made possible by a combination of three great medicines... a unique antitussive, a medically-proven decongestant and an exclusive antihistamine.

DONDRL has twice the effectiveness of codeine, yet is non-narcotic. Get DONDRL Anti-Cough Tablets. Money back if not satisfied.
